

Frinton-on-Sea Cricket Club

Operating Rules

Introduction

Having registered as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO), with charity number 1189093, the formal operation of the Club is entrusted to the Charity Trustees (Trustees). Details of the Trustees can be found via here.

The Constitution of the Club has been registered with the Charity Commission and is available on the Club website.

Paragraph 26 of the Constitution permits the Trustees to make rules for the proper conduct and management of the Club. The Trustees may alter the rules at any time.

The operating rules of Frinton-on-Sea Cricket Club were made by resolution of the Trustees passed at a meeting held on 30th April 2020.

The rules are as follows

1. Name

The name of the club is Frinton-on-Sea Cricket Club, hereafter to be referred as 'the Club' and the Club shall be affiliated to the England and Wales Cricket Board through the Essex County Cricket Board.

2. Purpose

The Club's main purpose is to foster and promote the sport of cricket at all levels within the community and within the sport. We will achieve this by:

- Providing opportunities for recreation, coaching and competition.
- Ensuring that all members, playing and non-playing, abide by the ECB Code of Conduct which incorporates the Spirit of Cricket and by-laws of Cricket.
- Ensuring a duty of care to all members of the Club by adopting and implementing the ECB 'Safe Hands – Cricket's Policy for Safeguarding Children' and any future versions of the Policy.
- Ensuring a duty of care to all members of the Club by adopting and implementing the ECB Cricket Equity Policy and any future versions of the Policy.
- Encouraging all members to participate fully in the activities of the Club.

3. Membership

The Club has the following membership policy:

- Membership of the Club shall be open to anyone interested in the sport of cricket on application regardless of sex, age, disability, ethnicity, nationality, sexual orientation, religion or other beliefs. However, limitation of membership according to available facilities is allowable on a non-discriminatory basis.
- The Club may have different classes of membership and subscription on a non-discriminatory and fair basis. The Club will keep subscriptions at levels that will not pose a significant obstacle to people participating.
- Application for membership of the Club must be by completion of a membership application form and by payment of the relevant subscription/joining fees as determined by the Trustees.
- No person shall be eligible to take part in the business of the Club or be eligible for selection for any Club team unless the appropriate subscription has been paid by the specified date or membership has been agreed by the Trustees.
- The Trustees may refuse or remove membership only for good cause such as conduct or character likely to bring the Club or cricket into disrepute or to jeopardise the Club's liquor licence. Appeal against refusal or removal may be made to the Club President whose decision will be binding.
- All members will be subject to the rules and by joining the Club will be deemed to accept these rules and any Codes of Conduct that the Club has adopted.

- Confirm any changes to Trustees and Honorary positions
- Confirm any changes to membership categories and advise subscription rates for the forthcoming year

The process for appointing Trustees is stated in the CIO's constitution.

The process for appointing Committees and Committee members is stated in these rules.

The process for approving the annual financial statements is stated in these rules.

11. Discipline and appeals

The Club is committed to maintaining high standards of behaviour both on and off the field.

All members are expected to treat their fellow members, team mates, training partners, coaches, opposition, spectators, umpires and other officials with respect and fairness at all times.

The Club is committed to the investigation of any claims brought to its attention of discrimination, harassment, bullying, abuse or victimisation and will impose any sanction it considers appropriate and proportionate.

In the event that any party feels that they or their child has suffered any discrimination, harassment, bullying, abuse or victimisation at the hands of a club member, they should contact the Honorary Secretary in writing. Any such report should include details of the occurrence including the time and the place, any witness details and copies of any witness statements.

If a dispute cannot be resolved informally, the Trustees shall appoint a Disciplinary Committee who will usually meet within fourteen days of a complaint being lodged. Any member requested to attend a Disciplinary Committee shall be entitled to be accompanied by a friend or other representative and to call witnesses.

The Disciplinary Committee has the power to take appropriate disciplinary action and the outcome of the hearing shall be put in writing to the affected parties within 7 days of the hearing. Possible sanctions include:

- A verbal warning
- A written warning
- A playing suspension
- A playing and membership suspension
- Termination of membership

There shall be a right of appeal against either the finding or the sanction imposed or both following disciplinary action being taken. The appeal should be made in writing to the Trustees, addressing their appeal to the Chairman. The Chairman shall appoint an Appeals Committee (a maximum of three) which shall not include members involved with the initial disciplinary hearing but may include non-members of the Club. The Appeals Committee shall outline, at the time, the process for the appeal to the affected parties.

The decision of the Appeals Committee shall be final and binding on all parties.
